

Wilder Mayhall Roberts, Au.D., CCC-A

EDUCATION

- 03/02-08/03 Au.D., Audiology, University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida
- 08/95-05/97 M.S., Audiology, University of Montevallo, Montevallo, Alabama
- 08/91-05/95 B.S., Education of the Hearing Impaired, University of Montevallo, Montevallo, Alabama

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

August 2016
to Present

Assistant Professor, Audiology, University of South Alabama Speech and Hearing Clinic, Mobile, Alabama. Provide audiological services including hearing evaluations, electrophysiological testing, vestibular testing, auditory processing evaluations, aural rehabilitation, and neonatal assessments and supervise graduate students providing same services. Sell, dispense and supervise students dispensing assistive listening devices, and hearing instruments using programmable and digital technology, cochlear implant mapping. Diagnostic report writing.

August 2007
to July 2016

Audiologist, Southwest Alabama Regional School for the Deaf and Blind, Mobile, Alabama. Provide pediatric audiological services including hearing evaluations, cochlear implant candidacy evaluations, auditory processing evaluations, aural rehabilitation, and auditory therapy utilizing auditory-verbal techniques. Provide initial stimulation and follow-up cochlear implant mapping for Cochlear Americas, Med-El and Advanced Bionics. Dispense and manage large variety of FM systems for 5 counties in southwest Alabama. Serve as a related service for hearing impaired students in 5 counties in southwest Alabama. Collaborate with multiple service providers with in MCPSS and in community. Certified Teacher of the Hearing Impaired (preK-12th grade). Diagnostic report writing as well as IEP writing. Supervise local university doctoral students in all tasks associated with employment. Actively pursuing Listening and Spoken Language Specialist-Education certification.

May 2015
to Present

Adjunct Instructor, University of South Alabama. Responsible for preparation and teaching of doctoral audiology students AUD 642 Pediatric Audiology. Prepare course content and examinations.

March, 1998
to August 2007

Audiologist/Clinical Supervisor, University of South Alabama Speech and Hearing Clinic, Mobile, Alabama. Provide audiological services including hearing evaluations, electrophysiological testing, vestibular testing, auditory processing evaluations, aural rehabilitation, and neonatal assessments and supervise graduate students providing same services. Sell, dispense and supervise students dispensing assistive listening devices, and hearing instruments using programmable and digital technology, cochlear implant mapping. Diagnostic report writing. Teach several courses, listed below.

May, 1997
to March 1998

Audiologist (1/98-3/98) and Clinical Fellow (5/97-1/98), The Birmingham Otology Center, Birmingham, Alabama. Provided audiological services including, hearing evaluations, electrophysiological testing, canalith repositioning, and neonatal assessments. Sold and dispensed assistive listening devices and hearing instruments including programmable and digital technology. Experience with cochlear implant assessment and intraoperative monitoring. Diagnostic report writing. Patient population included pediatric through geriatric.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2016	AUD 642, Pediatric Audiology
2015	AUD 642, Pediatric Audiology
2006	AUD 646, Pediatric Audiology
2000	SPA 571, Advanced Procedures in Audiology
1999	SPA 470, Basic Audiology
1999	SPA 471, Introduction to Audiological Assessment
1998	SPA 480, Introduction to the Clinical Process
1998 to 2007	SPA 596, Graduate Practicum: Speech-Language-Hearing

SERVICE

2010 to Present - Test Coordinator, Regional School for the Deaf and Blind
2011 to Present – Golf Tournament Co-Chair for Friends of the Regional School
2011 to Present – Treasurer, Friends of the Regional School

Departmental Service at USA Speech and Hearing Clinic

2004 to 2007 – Member, Academic and Admissions Committee
2005 to 2007 – Member, Recruitment and Retention Committee
2002 to 2007 – Advisor, National Student Speech-Language Hearing Association, USA chapter
1998 to 2004 - Member, Clinic Committee
2000 to 2004 - Alternate, Undergraduate Grade Grievance Committee

MEMBERSHIPS AND LICENSURE

Alabama Academy of Audiologists, Member-At-Large 2013 to present

Speech and Hearing Association of Alabama, Member 2006

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, Certified Member, 1998 to Present

Certification of Clinical Competence in Audiology, American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 1998 to Present

Licensed to practice Audiology, State of Alabama, 1998 to Present

Bay Area Speech and Hearing Association, Member, 1998 to 2007
Treasurer, 2001 to 2003

National Student Speech-Language Hearing Association, Advisor 2002 to 2007

PRESENTATIONS

Roberts, W. Auditory Verbal Strategies in an Educational Setting. Presentation for BASHA Members. Mobile, AL. September 2015.

Wilkins-Jones, K., Roberts, W. Auditory-Verbal Strategies and Auditory Listening Guide Alignment with Alabama Course of Study. Mobile, AL. July 2014.

Roberts, W., Wilkins-Jones, K. Auditory- Verbal Strategies in Early Intervention. Presentation for Early Interventionists through Alabama Institute for the Deaf and Blind. Mobile, AL. June, 2010

Roberts, W. Hearing Aid Use and Care in the Pediatric Population. Presentation for parents of preschool children at the Mobile County Preschool for the Sensory Impaired on the Mobile campus of Alabama Institute for the Deaf and Blind. Mobile, AL. March, 2005.

Aarts, N., Griffin, T., Roberts, W. Pediatric Hearing Aid Fitting: Digital vs Analog Technology. Presentation for American Speech-Language Hearing Association. New Orleans, LA. November, 2001.

Aarts, N., Griffin, T., Roberts, W. Fitting Digital Technology on the Pediatric Population: When Why and How. Presentation for the Speech and Hearing Association of Alabama. Huntsville, AL. March, 2001.

Mayhall, W. Hearing Loss and Its Implications in the Elderly. Presentation for a University of South Alabama Graduate Counseling Course. Mobile, AL. August, 1999.

Chase, P., Griffin, T., Mayhall, W. Universal Newborn Hearing Screenings: The Key to Early Diagnosis of Hearing Loss-Case Studies. Presentation for University of South Alabama Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and the Perinatal Outreach Program. Mobile, AL. April, 1999.
